

NOTE:

Take a breath; the pressure is off. We are not asking you to teach or have the answer to every question. Your role is to guide, facilitate, and, most importantly, listen and invite. Refrain from answering the question yourself. These questions are there to help start the conversation with the group; however, remain flexible. The group may have different questions that arise through the discussion, and your ability to go with the group's pace will allow them to feel heard, process their thoughts, and lead to a God moment that we couldn't even write into this study.

WEEK 1: DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Whom has Jesus shown himself to be in your life?
2. How have you seen the logos Word refine you over time? Is there something he is working on right now that you might like to share?
3. What does walking in Him look like in your life? Is there anything about that you would like to see change?
4. What areas have you had to deny yourself, take up his cross, or his way of living? What have you learned from that?

PRAYER/REFLECTION

Take a moment to pray for one another's needs and reflect on the impact of this study on our everyday way of living.
