

NOTE:

Take a breath; the pressure is off. We are not asking you to teach or have the answer to every question. Your role is to guide, facilitate, and, most importantly, listen and invite. Refrain from answering the question yourself. These questions are there to help start the conversation with the group; however, remain flexible. The group may have different questions that arise through the discussion, and your ability to go with the group's pace will allow them to feel heard, process their thoughts, and lead to a God moment that we couldn't even write into this study.

WEEK 2: DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Why did Jesus have to die?
2. What does the cross teach me about God?
3. Meditate briefly on the love of God displayed in Christ Jesus. What emotions does the sacrificial love of God evoke in you?
4. In what areas of my life can I stand fully assured in the faithfulness of God?
5. How can I honor the death of Jesus on the cross in my daily life?

PRAYER/REFLECTION

Take a moment to pray for one another's needs and reflect on the impact of this study on our everyday way of living.
