

NOTE:

Take a breath; the pressure is off. We are not asking you to teach or have the answer to every question. Your role is to guide, facilitate, and, most importantly, listen and invite. Refrain from answering the question yourself. These questions are there to help start the conversation with the group; however, remain flexible. The group may have different questions that arise through the discussion, and your ability to go with the group's pace will allow them to feel heard, process their thoughts, and lead to a God moment that we couldn't even write into this study.

WEEK 4: DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. When you think of the cross of Jesus and what it means to you, what is the first word that comes to mind?
2. Out of the three points discussed, what is the one that is most revelatory to you?
3. How can you take a more profound step into the new life Jesus purchased for you on the cross?

PRAYER/REFLECTION

Take a moment to pray for one another's needs and reflect on the impact of this study on our everyday way of living.
