Ice Breaker Question: In light of Father's Day, share one thing you appreciated about your dad? Share a 'dad-ism' you learned from him? Your fave dad joke?

Message Notes: Questions:

TRUE FATHERS...

1. Are secure!
2. Don't forget their why!
3. Are peacemakers!
4. Are kind and merciful!
5. Are generous!
6. Keep their word!
7. Leave a lasting legacy!

1. Have you ever followed a leader who was all show and no substance? What did you learn and how did you realize it?
2. How do you navigate/handle your desires of the flesh? How do you get back your spirit filled self?
3. Have you ever felt that Satan has gotten into your home? Do you find that behind the doors of your house you act a different way to family than when you are out in public or at church?
4. What would like your lasting legacy to be? What lasting legacy from your earthly father do you have and want to pass on?
5. In your relationships, who is the first to communicate or be the peacemaker? Is there have anyone that you need to resolve a 'situation' with or that you might be waiting for to make the first move?

Prayer:

Father God we come to you full of gratefulness. Thank you for being the perfect loving Father, full of mercy and grace for us. Thank you for offering the perfect sacrifice of your son for us so that we can sit at your table forgiven and whole. Fill us with your grace and compassion for others so that we may be light in this dark world. In your son's Holy name, amen.
